

2014 SEASON

Hogmany

Same old problem; what to do on Hogmanay? This year, the answer is easy. Get yourself down to New Williamfield and bring in 2015 with your club mates! We will have fireworks at the bells and a festive atmosphere for the evening. There will also be a buffet at the cost of £3 per head. To register your interest, see Graeme Taylor.

Scotland v. ROI

We will be showing the vital Euro 2016 qualifier between Scotland and ROI in the clubhouse on Friday 14th November. We'll be offering a 'Pie & a Pint' promotion on the night where your first drink will net you a free pie! The game kicks off at 7.45pm with the club open from 7pm.

Indoor League

The games will take place across all Sundays in November. If you have an interest in taking part in any of these games, make yourself known to Gavin Anderson.

In his time at the helm of the club during his second session, Les has been actively involved in much of the transition from Williamfield in Torbrex to our fantastic new facility at Forthbank and has been influential over the last two years in discussions between the club and Cricket Scotland over the proposed move to make New Williamfield the home of Scottish cricket. Les will be staying on to deal with this while we welcome new chairman Rod Turnbull.

Disappointingly, one position has yet to be filled in the new committee. As of writing, we do not have a Third XI captain in place for the 2015 season. Following their relegation from division four in 2014, the role of Third XI
